Nicole Ridley is a graduate of the Ohio State University, Max M. Fisher College of Business, with a major in Finance and a Master's degree in Business Administration from Ohio Dominican University. She is a high performing, strategic thinking professional with more than 11 years experience in Finance and Commercial Real Estate. She is organized and conscientious self-starting individual with the ability to strategize and prioritize effectively to accomplish multiple tasks. Through her continuous commitment for self-improvement, strong analytical skills, and ability to connect with people, Nicole has been able to succeed in every position she has held regardless of industry, company, or job title.

Within her current role as an Investment Analyst with the Nationwide Real Estate Investment Department, her responsibilities consist of analyzing and making recommendations related to requests from commercial mortgage borrowers, examining and analyzing terms and events mandated in loan documents, and ensuring all terms are being followed by the borrower. Overall, her role can be summarized as an individual responsible for uncovering any potential risk to Nationwide's Commercial Real Estate portfolio.

In addition, Nicole is a current cabinet member of AWARE, African-American Women Active and Ready to Exceed, AWARE is the Associate Resource Group focused on African-American women. She is currently serving as Treasurer. The ARG was established in 2008, by a group of women in Nationwide who were passionate about empowering other female colleagues. As Treasurer, Nicole is charged to help execute our associate resource group's mission to provide members with valuable opportunities to enhance their professional development through mentoring, networking and service to their communities.

Outside of Nationwide, Nicole is passionate about giving back to those who are less fortunate and in need of a second chance. Nicole has participated in several volunteer opportunities with the Mid Ohio Food Bank and Dress for Success. In addition, for the past 3 years Nicole has been involved with the United Methodist Free Store, who provides clothing and household items to families in need in a hospitable atmosphere that affirms the self-worth of each individual, by collecting and sorting toys for their annual Christmas Shop.

Nicole's passion, drive, and exceptional work ethics will allow her to be a great asset to the All T.H.A.T Board.
